PSL IN A STATE OF FLUX

— By Andrew Dettre —

Newcastle at the top, Sydney City at the bottom and two points separate second from last — this is the unfolding drama of the Philips League.

There is no doubt that the 1979 season started with a tremendous bang and promises to be the most exciting of the League's existence.

Forecasting results, never an easy task, is becoming impossible: surprises and shocks are the order of the day.

Last weekend's major shocks included Adelaide City's and Canberra's home defeats and Sydney City's spectacular collapse.

Two teams are still unbeaten, Newcastle and Heidelberg, while all have won at least once.

Both Lions and Adelaide City have lost all their home matches so far.

Marconi became the first PSL team to earn a bonus point for a four-goal win — due probably as much to Sydney City's depleted state as to their own aggression.

Both Adelaide and Brisbane teams lost but four of the five Sydney teams won (the only loser being a local victim), while the Melbourne trio remain undefeated.

The last three teams on the table are still from Sydney — but the field is so tightly packed that for the next few weeks violent fluctuations can be expected.

The whole round will be played on Sunday — April Fool's Day — and one wonders who'll be in a laughing mood by 5pm.

A few years ago St. George and Sydney City would have fought for a top position: their clash on Sunday will be a desperate affair as both are trying to escape from the bottom.

APIA will entertain leaders Newcastle at Wentworth Park while Marconi will be hosts to Adelaide City against the juicy backdrop of two coaches who crossed over since last season.

West Adelaide will try to make amends against Heidelberg, hopefully with Kosmina in the line-up, while Brisbane City will test the newfound zest of Olympic at Perry Park.

Canberra travels to play South Melbourne and could suffer yet another blow to their shaken ego, while Footscray will be home to Brisbane Lions who seem more dangerous away than at home.

KOSMINA PICKS ADELAIDE

— By Keith Gilmour —

Prodigal son John Kosmina could be back from London this week, rejoining West Adelaide.

Arsenal manager Terry Neill said Arsenal had received several offers for Kosmina; also from Canberra and Sydney.

"However, he wanted to return to Adelaide, his home town and we accepted his decision.

"He is a talented boy but would have had problems making our first squad which is now stronger than for years."

Although not staying on with Arsenal, Kosmina was capable enough to play four first team matches.

How many Australian-born players can say they played for Arsenal against Leeds United and Red Star Belgrade in Euro-Cups?

The present Gunners must rate in the top four English teams, and in Europe's top 16.

Westad on loan for the first year of Philips League.

He bought out his own contract to join Arsenal, and guested for Adelaide City mid-season in 1978.

His transfer fee back to Westad is estimated at $24,000 — a record for an Australian-born player.

For the general record his father is Polish born, his mother Australian.

West Adelaide coach Tom Forde will bring him back steadily. He wants Kosmina to bridge the gap from a cruel English winter to Australia's warmth without distress.

Forde kept in close contact with Kosmina and Arsenal manager Terry Neill to win the capable striker back to Australia if and when the time came.

"Terry Neill started talking at $100,000, which is quite realistic on the English market," said Forde this week.

"I have seen a few handy lads from Belfast and the English clubs starting bidding at $65,000, even for them.

"When it came to the point Terry was prepared to let John return to Adelaide for what is a reasonable price by their standards."

Westad also went close to picking up English international Martin Chivers for $17,000 from Norwich City.

"We might have had Chivers for 18 months to two years. John Kosmina, at 23, represents value far beyond that," said Forde.

John Kosmina

Kosmina suffered an injury that put his foot in plaster for three weeks after the Leeds game. Just as he broke through he found himself outside the squad.

His career in Australian soccer started out in an unusual way.

He came through the ranks with Adelaide Polonia, joining

If looks could kill . . .

Three Marconi players — Jankovics, Sharne and Henderson — celebrate while Sydney City's Souness looks at them disgusted. Later Souness was sent off and Marconi won 4-0. Imagine what Souness looked like THEN . . .

WILL NAMES REALLY HURT?

Some of our PSL clubs still fervently believe that a change of name brings change of image and luck.

Last week Fitzroy, formerly Alexander, became Heidelberg.

One week earlier Eastern Suburbs Hakoah changed to Sydney City.

In January Western Suburbs became APIA-West and then APIA.

In 1976 Pan Hellenic changed to Sydney Olympic, JUST to Footscray, Brisbane Azzurri to Brisbane City, Adelaide Juventus to Adelaide City, West Adelaide Hellas to West Adelaide, and South Melbourne Hellas to South Melbourne.

No wonder many fans are confused. In our records, we treat these "new" clubs as the old ones, regardless of name changes.

We also treat APIA as the successors of Western Suburbs, not as a new entity.

Is this boot on the other foot?

Australian soccer is good at soliciting financial assistance from sponsors and then ignoring the hen as well as the golden egg.

Recently Dunlop Footwear announced a rich grant to all PSL referees for a number of specific purposes.

One was to ensure that all PSL matches are refereed by men from neutral States.

Last Sunday both matches in Sydney were refereed by Sydney men; last week all three Sydney matches, with an interstate flavor, as well as a Melbourne game (against a Sydney team) were refereed by locals.

One third of the Dunlop grant has already been paid into the coffers of the PSL — yet the scheme obviously hasn't started.

Another condition of the sponsorship was that all referees wear the exclusively designed gear provided by Dunlop.

So far in at least five matches referees ignored this basic courtesy.

Now Dunlop is getting increasingly annoyed that whenever PSL referees are in charge of State League matches, they are not allowed to wear their smart Dunlop gear.

Some Dunlop executives are beginning to wonder whether their involvement with soccer will be worth the effort or have they just bought themselves a lot of fresh headaches.

West St. George (Div. 5) begin their first premiership with a away match to Hawkesbury next weekend. With three players out with injuries — John Ryan, a pulled hamstring; Gary Gibson, knee problems, and Mick Lepine with a fractured bone in his ankle — coach Bob Murphy will be seriously watching several second graders during this week's training sessions. Last Sunday the teams played Holroyd Rangers. The early match went to West St. George, with Bruce Walton scoring the only goal of the game. The late match also went to West St. George 3-1, with Dave Hooper, Brade Cook and Warren Keen scoring.

Maccabi's Peter Nadel is in hospital with a badly fractured shoulder. He has had to have a pin inserted and will most likely be out of action for the majority of the season. Maccabi's teams have played several trial matches with the following results: Against Lane Cove 2-0 and 2-0; Pagewood 2-0 and 4-1; Sydney Uni 9-0 and 4-2. The club has appointed Ron Lilling as second grade coach and signed midfielder Jeff Tossler, from Perth Maccabi. This year has also seen the club begin to field junior teams with the Southern and Eastern District Association. The club has been very fortunate also to acquire Sydney Cricket Ground No. 2 for training and competition matches.

Hurstville Zagreb (Div. 3) has signed Milan Belobrajdic, a centre back, for the new season. Milan, whose brother Steve is a regular second grade player for Hurstville was for the last three years on the books of Sydney Croatia and yet he never played for the club. It is hoped that he will soon return to full match fitness. In trial matches against Fairfield Kiev, Zagreb went down in both grades 2-3 and 1-2.

Camden (Div. 5) have spent over $1000 on top dressing the club's main field at Ponderosa Park, giving the pitch a 100 per cent better surface. The club has received a $10,000 interest free loan from the local council for additions to the clubhouse. With 16 junior teams in Southern Districts and one senior team in the Southern Highlands Association (Bowral-Picton area) and with four fields over 16 acres, the potential for the future is certainly there. Last weekend's trials saw Camden defeat Mt. Pritchard 4-2 in reserve grade and 3-2 in first grade. Goal scorers were John Rose, Ian Wardle with a 40-metre drive and Bill Jacobs, who received the ball off the line from Steve Bates to shoot a perfect volley into the net.

Pagewood (Div. 5) face their first premiership competition match with three first graders out with injuries against Macquarie Uni next weekend. One club highnote at the moment though is the success of the Southern and Eastern under-13s taking out the Mini Ampol Cup. The majority of these boys come from the Pagewood under-13 team.

Blacktown Wanderers (Div. 6) would like to thank their club supporters for the response they have had to their recent special activities, a smorgasbord at the Merrylands Bowling Club where 250 players, members and supporters attended, and a picnic day at the Blue Metal property, Yarramundi, where four buses were chartered. The club's latest trial matches were against Macquarie Uni last Saturday, with a loss for reserve grade 2-5 and an encouraging win for first grade of 6-1. The club has been fortunate in acquiring the use of Parklea for their home matches, though the first premiership match against Liverpool Utd. will be played at Grantham High School. President Joe Apap is pleased with the team and the members' support and feels that 1979 looks to be a very good year for the Wanderers.

North Ryde (Div. 4) met Ashcroft in a trial and lost 0-3 and 0-2. North Ryde are in the situation of having quite a few players still participating in the cricket competition. Right winger Tony Pickard has returned with his wife from a trip to England. It is understood he has a few trial runs with an English club while he was away.

Edensor Park (Div. 5) have appointed ex-Marconi and South Sydney Croatia player Rudi Djanovic as senior coach for this season. The club has signed ex-Polonia midfielder Ted Gzalez and ex-Prospect County defender Phil Pavela though, unfortunately, they have lost their 1978 top goal scorer Neno Nenofelaca to South Sydney Croatia. The club's pre-season trial results were: Camden 0-0 and 4-0; Catherine Fields 5-1 and 7-1; Eastwood St. Andrews 1-3 and 2-2. The club would like to congratulate player Sam Bilavdr on the birth of his son.

North Rocks (Div. 4) have gained a lot of confidence from the outcome of trial matches against higher division clubs. Last Thursday night the first graders played and defeated the first division club Blacktown Utd. 2-1. Last Sunday The Rocks went down 0-1 in another trial against Riverstone, but the game was dominated mostly by the losing side. The feeling throughout the club is that North Rocks is fully prepared and capable of winning their premiership this year.

The following are the second grade and first grade results of trials played last weekend: Holroyd Rangers v West St. George 0-1, 1-2; Maroubra v North Bankstown 0-2, 0-2; Bonnyrigg Eagles v Yagoona 1-1, 0-3; Padstow v Chullora 3-1, 5-0; Padstow v Bankstown Sports 14-1, 5-1; West Holroyd v Wentworth 1-0, 1-1; Namatjira v Maccabi 2-1, 2-2; Artarmon v Chelsea 5-3, 1-1; Bondi v Marrickville 4-0, 1-4.

Eastwood St. Andrews (Div. 4) played their last pre-season match against Edensor Park. The result of 2-2 was quite satisfying for the club with players showing more strength and determination. The second grade result went to Eastwood 3-1. Out of the Eastwood side to miss the first six matches of the season will be Kenny Bryant. Ken suffered a knee injury during a training session and requires a cartilage operation.

Guildford County (Div. 2) played early Saturday morning matches against Marconi's first division sides last weekend. The results were 1-2, 1-3, 0-1. Coach Jim Christie used the games for his final selections for the coming premiership competition. The club's "Back to Guildford" idea has "snowballed" to such an extent that five nights have been arranged to accommodate all the past players and members wishing to attend. The first night, held on March 10, was a phenomenal success. The April 7 date is mainly for players and coaches from 1928 to 1960; April 21 for members from 1961 to 1979, and May 5 and 19 for players and coaches from 1961-1979. Overall approximately 700 people will have been "Back to Guildford".

CLUB PATROL

Edited by Stephen Dettre

Croatia will use the SYDNEY SPORTSGROUND for all their home matches this year, giving their spectators above average facilities, and the players one of the better surfaces in Sydney to play on.

Ian Heywood

Inter Monaro will regain both IAN HEYWOOD and PHILIP FAY for first team selection this week, as both players have served out their two-week suspensions, earned after sendings off.

Melita's dominant centre back HOWARD HADLEY is itching to get back into the first team after a knee operation. Last week coach RAUL BLANCO gave Howard a run in third grade, and gradually he hopes to build up Howard's confidence and match readiness.

TOONGABBIE will play host to the United States Navy soccer team this Saturday at the Gabbie soccer stadium. A contingent of sailors was on hand to watch the opening game of the season against Melita, and a friendly clash was arranged as a gesture of goodwill. The game will be in aid of the "Lovely Motherhood" contest run by the Toongabbie club this year.

INTER MONARO will hold their Inaugural Ball this week, on Friday night. The ball is the start of a weekend of celebrations to mark the first home match of the season.

BLACKTOWN UNITED will be sending several junior teams to Queanbeyan this weekend to play a series of friendly matches with Inter Monaro. Games will be played on Saturday and Sunday, and also as a curtain raiser to the Monaro-Sutherland main match.

Bankstown's young fullback JOHN LEMBRYK has been sidelined for a while with the recurrence of a knee injury. John recently had a knee operation, and it seems the wound is again playing up. John, a local lad, is now playing his second year in first grade, after gaining promotion last year.

Warringah Saints, in an all-out effort to gain support from the locals in their area, have now a general manager, EDWARD CATTLE, who will promote the team. The club hopes to be able to entice people along to Grahams Reserve on home match days for an afternoon of entertainment, ranging from bands to, hopefully, entertaining soccer.

Although rumors are flying that Croatia may bring back NICK FENOUGHTY from England, Croatia coach ATTI ABONYI assures us that the club firstly wants to consolidate the present batch of players into a unit which will last several years.

Inter Monaro's JOHNNY MORSELLO has been forced to return to Sydney, because of personal reasons, and is at present looking for a Sydney club for the 1979 season. His brother TONY is still with the club and is playing extremely well, according to reports.

Warringah Saints' PAUL CLANCY had reason to celebrate two weeks ago when he turned out on the weekend for his team, for it was his 100th time he had donned a Saints shirt. Paul has been a regular second grader, making frequent first team appearances. Also, he was the second grade coach, and took the team to a championship a few years ago.

Toongabbie's Argentinian defender HECTOR GERLO is still in South America and nothing has been heard from him recently except a short message via some friends that he is still planning to return to Australia.

WARRINGAH SAINTS feel that they could be set for their most successful season ever this year, and after their initial victory over University of NSW look forward to many more victories.

Since the NSW Federation's official program was ended a couple of weeks ago, there has been much talk of what will replace it. TOONGABBIE have taken matters into their own hands and will produce a match program for all their home games at the Gabbie Soccer Stadium this year. The 12-page booklet will contain gossip about the club, as well as the visitors — the usual program fare.

A great talent lost to Sydney soccer this year is IAN STONE, the Croatia midfielder who was an integral part in Croatia's meteoric rise to the top over the last few years. Ian is now back in his hometown Newcastle, where he hopes to utilise his university degree and get a job as a teacher.

INTER MONARO officials are hopeful that by this weekend they will have confirmed the club's new sponsorship for 1979.

Bankstown certainly has a well travelled crop of players in its ranks this year, none the least being the club captain for 1979, JOHN LEE. John is a Scot, and played League football in Scotland, being on the books of Celtic, before going to South Africa to play in their national League. The 24-year-old midfielder is settling in well with Bankstown and should be a dominant force for the team this year.

Former Croatia player JOHN RUSSELL, brother of Adelaide City's BOBBY, is now trialling with Brisbane Lions in the hope of following his brother into the Philips League.

BANKSTOWN is getting strong support from the ladies of the district, and last Friday night there was a meeting of more than 40 women who debated what they could do to help the club.

Following the pattern set by near neighbors Canberra City, INTER MONARO have set out to "blitz" the Queanbeyan area with colourful propaganda, in the form of stickers, T-shirts and the like. The club, following the trend of several clubs, now also has an "Inter Monaro wine" for sale.

ATTI ABONYI is guarded in his praise of young defender ALEX KOVACIC, who has shown some brilliant touches during the Ampol Cup. Atti feels that if the 17-year-old right back can keep his head, and not over react to praise like some other youngsters, then he will have an outstanding future. Alex is the younger of two Kovacic's with Croatia, for his brother MARIJAN is the elegant striker of the team.

This Sunday INTER MONARO will play hosts to the Lord Mayor of Queanbeyan who will meet the Sutherland and Monaro players, and be the guest of the club at a dinner held in the evening at the Marco Polo Club.

Another well travelled Bankstown player is 25-year-old defender KEITH GAULD, a Scot. Keith played with Brechin City and Hearts in Scotland, as well as teams in Malta and South Africa before arriving in Australia.

Toongabbie's 23-year-old 'keeper PETER FREEMAN has been cleared by his doctor and will resume training with the club soon. Peter underwent a cartilage operation, but had to have extra surgery when things didn't work out. Now club officials hope he will quickly regain top form.

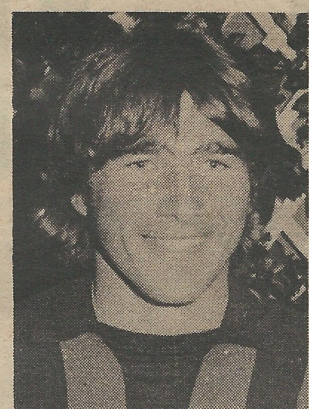

Arncliffe's young second grade goalkeeper BRETT HANSELL, missed his match last week because he had commitments in another eleven-a-side game; cricket. Brett played in the final of his cricket competition, but from now on should be able to concentrate on soccer.

ARNCLIFFE SCOTS are selling season tickets both at the club and at Hurstville Oval, with single tickets going at $15 and family tickets — for two adults and four children — at $25. Also on sale are scarves, car stickers and T-shirts. The club will sell stickers for $1 and all money from sales will be donated to UNICEF as a part of the "Year of the Child" celebrations.

Talented youngster JOHN MUSCOVITS is firing on all guns for Arncliffe at present, as was shown last week when he scored two goals in second grade, the day after his 19th birthday.

Arncliffe Scots, in keeping with their name, have again secured the services of a Scottish band to entertain the crowd before all home games. The Pipes and Drums of the MacMillan Tartan will add a bit of color to all Arncliffe's games at Hurstville Oval.

Gerald Crawford

Inter Monaro's rugged defender GERALD CRAWFORD played his first full match last week after a 10-month lay off through injury. Gerald was injured in last year's Ampol Cup, but now is fast approaching peak fitness.

Arncliffe lost two players through injury last week, and both are doubtful for this week. ALAN BANKHEAD strained a hamstring muscle at training, while DEREK SIDNEY strained his groin, also at training.

SIR WILLIAM WINTERBOTTOM will be guest speaker at a dinner to be held at the Sydney Rowing Club, Abbotsford, on Monday, April 2. The NSW Soccer Beef and Burgundy Club and the Australian Soccer Press Association have joined together to arrange the function.

On Saturday (March 31), at the Gabbie Stadium, Toongabbie will be meeting a United States Navy team in a charity game in aid of the Lovely Motherhood Contest. Gail Irving is the local entrant sponsored by the Toongabbie Club. The kick-off is at 4pm, and the match is preceeded by a ladies' game. Admission is 50c and all proceeds to go the North Rocks Deaf and Blind Children's Home. Henry Witschge has offered his services as referee.

Mary Balafas, wife of Marrickville Olympic winger PETER BALAFAS gave birth to a baby boy last week at King George hospital. Both are doing well and the baby will be named Dimitrios. Congratulations!

JOHN TIKIS, the visiting popular Greek singer will kick off the main game at Arlington Oval on Sunday between Marrickville Olympic and Bankstown.

Marrickville Olympic have appointed ARIS PATIKAS as their second grade coach. Patikas used to coach the Western Suburbs juniors.

Richard Bell, Sydney Olympic's optometrist ex-Socceroo, became the father of a baby boy last week — our warmest congratulations.

GRANVILLE v MV. OLYMPIC 2-1 (1-0)

Granville, playing against 10 men for most of the second half, made hard work of toppling Olympic with only two minutes to spare. Billy Fraser with some assistance from Johnny Forwood won the bigger share of the ball and Fraser's superbly accurate passes opened gaps in the Olympic defence. He kept Granville in the hunt for goals, and it was from one of his passes just before half-time that Alister Link was able to give the Magpies the lead. Link, a new signing from APIA, played his striker role well and was a constant worry to the opposing defence. Olympic seemed to rally after Mick Stevenson intercepted a bad backpass and put them on level terms. However, with the game set for a draw, Graham

Barron came out of the blue with a sizzling individual effort, beating several defenders to smash in the winning goal.

GRANVILLE: Hoare 4, Barron 3, Bigland 3, Selfridge 3, O'May 3, Forwood 3, Link 3, Bates 2, Morrow 3, Fraser 4, Brizuela 2 (Roden 72m).

MARRICKVILLE OLYMPIC: Evans 3, Kable 3 (Balafas 46m), G. Brown 1 (sent off), Penman 4, Sheldrick 3, Zeros 3, Wignall 2, Thompson 3, Stephenson 3, Bryden 2 (R. Brown 58m), Ramische 3.

Goals: 1-0 Link (38m), 1-1 Stephenson (57m), 2-1 Barron (88m).

SUTHERLAND v KU-RING-GAI 3-0 (1-0)

Faster to the ball and more positive in their moves, Sutherland were never in danger of defeat. The wind played havoc all day, but this is no excuse for a below par performance by the Shire in the first 30 minutes. After Hall scored the first goal they improved their game only to slow down again after two goals within 60 seconds at the start of the second half. Although outclassed, Ku-ring-gai took advantage of some poor defence to bring the best out of Craggs on several occasions. However, lack of aggression and failure to mark tightly held Ku-ring-gai back, and they were forced to rely on the old hands, Malone, Kinsey and Herron, along with Geekie. "New Boy" Stoddard fitted well into a Shire team which plays basic football without frills.

SUTHERLAND: Craggs 3, Hesford 4, Wykes 3, Smith 4, Dal Forno 2, Schumann 3, Hall 4, Stoddard 4, Beggs 3, Basterfield 3, Harrington 2.

KU-RING-GAI: Ellis 3, Vousden 3, Geekie 4, Malone 4, Robertson 2, Kinsey 4, Hill 2 (Turner 70m), Hardacre 2, Herron 3, Delaney 3, K. Smith 2.

BANKSTOWN v AUBURN 2-2 (1-0)

Neither Bankstown nor Auburn showed premiership winning form, with a high wind making conditions difficult. In a scrappy game Bankstown's equaliser came in the last minute. They took the lead in the 12th minute when Dennis Daley headed in a pass from Derek Mason. Auburn equalised four minutes after the interval when Steve Leak, receiving a perfect pass from Bruce Tilt, crashed the ball into the net. At this stage Auburn were right on top as Leak scored his second goal in the 61st minute. Bankstown, who had backpassed excessively, scored the equaliser when Daley netted from close in.

BANKSTOWN: Greedy 3, Thompson 3, Lynch 4, Morrison 3 (Usher 87m), Rootsey 4, Butler 3 (Angelopoulos 80m), Porter 3, Lee 3, Wilson 3, Daley 4, Mason 3.

AUBURN: Gisbourne 3, Cornet 3 (Hall 77m), Woods 4, Gary Fairclough 4, Hagg 4, McDonald 3, Juchniwicz 3 (Hill 74m), Leak 4, Tilt 3, Montgomery 3, McKendrick 3.

CROATIA v MELITA 0-0

This was a game of limited chances, with neither midfield giving an inch the strikers did not see much of the ball. In the first half there were a couple of chances but both 'keepers did well to save them. Steve Watson dived and splendidly punched a Ray Farrugia header over the bar. The second half was similar to the first except that it was the defenders who killed the chances. The best opportunity of the match fell to Jones in the 78th minute. Bruno Cagali somehow missed a high ball, Parker centred but Jones missed from close in. Melita's Blanco was happy with the point in view of the big Ampol Cup game three days before.

MELITA: Bracklow 4, McPherson 4, Mkas 3, Yamine 3, McDonald 3, Darvill 3, Parker 3, McAusland 3, Allan 3 (J. Farrugia 80m), R. Farrugia 3, Griffith 2 (Jones 65m, 3).

CROATIA: Watson 4, A. Kovacic 3, Mullen 3, Basic 3, Smith 3, Cagali 3, Sullivan 3, Savor 3, Abonyi 3, M. Kovacic 3, Leyden 3.

TOONGABBIE v AVALA 3-0 (1-0)

Toongabbie took only four minutes to take the lead against Avala, and went on to register a comfortable win. Carlos Ortega sent a perfect through ball to Alan Fisher, who scored with a low shot. Ortega scored the second goal after half-time with a high curling ball. Alan Griffith had a great game for Avala, but a strong shot was foiled by goalkeeper Bruce James. Avala was reduced to 10 men when key player Zoran Djuricic was sent from the field for alleged striking, following an incident with Rick Hormazabal. In the 85th minute Hormazabal and Peter

Cuk combined to set Fisher up for a final headed goal.

TOONGABBIE: James 3, Izatt 3, Pena 3, Parkhouse 4, Pointer 4, Hormazabal 4, Harding 3, Fisher 4, Cuk 3, Ortega 4, Pollard 3.

AVALA: Mikolajczyk 3, R. Griffith 3, Deller 3, Barton 4, Gray 2 (Rnjak 63m), Williams 3, Jancek 3, Djuricic 1 (sent off), Bateman 3, Kodor 2 (Patterson 45m), A. Griffith 4.

Goals: 1-0 Fisher (4m), 2-0 Ortega (65m), 3-0 Fisher (85m). Referee: H. Witschge. Crowd: 1506.

ARNCLIFFE v YUGAL 2-0 (1-0)

Arncliffe's new signing Bobby Goose, playing his first game for the club, proved his worth by scoring both goals in the Scots' 2-0 victory over Yugal. The 28-year-old former APIA and Bankstown player adapted to the left wing position and gave his team victory with well-placed goals in the 20th and 66th minutes. After taking an early lead, Arncliffe passed on into a second-half gale until their persistence was rewarded. A low cross from Andy Trajanoski was skillfully guided into the far corner of goal by Goose, virtually sewing the game up for his team. Branko Karanfilovski twice broke Arncliffe's defence without scoring.

ARNCLIFFE: Rodgers 3, Butler 3, Smart 4, Oldham 4, Hall 4, Martin 3 (Perry), Hooper 3, Tracey 5, Schroeder 3 (Baker), Blackburn 3, Goose 4.

YUGAL: Berry 4, Nitya 3, Kumar 3, Klemperer 3, Prgomeljo 3, Tanoski 3, Purac 3 (Stamenkovic), Travini, Rodas, Karanfilovski 4, Gallifucio 3.

Goals: 1-0 Goose (20m), 2-0 Goose (66m). Referee: B. Wilkinson. Crowd: 1250.

MANLY v MONARO 1-1 (1-1)

Monaro made good use of the blustery winds in the first half. Whilst their forwards were clever they never threatened the Manly goal, where Woods only had to make two or three saves all day. Manly gave a disjointed display, and never really supported each other in attack. Trajanoski's opening goal in the 12th minute was a gem. He turned on to a through-pass and slammed the ball in from 20 metres. Outstanding for both teams were the stoppers, Bobby Noble and John Dick, who organised their defences well. Top marks to Joe Nawalu, on his own in Manly's attack.

MANLY: Woods 4, Geoghegan 3, Doyle 3, Dick 4, Mouttet 4, Jack 3, Roozendaal 3, Banks 3, Palamara 3, Nawalu 4, Stuart 3.

MONARO: Palec 4, Crawford 3, Charles 4, Noble 5, O'Neill 4, Santolin 3, Bourke 4, Marsello 4, Giampolo 3, Valeri 4, Trajanoski 3.

Goals: 0-1 Trajanoski (12m), 1-1 Jack (42m). Referee: B. Fowler. Crowd: 326.

SUTHERLAND ON RISKY MISSION

Two wins has been enough to give Sutherland top of the table position, with Croatia, Bankstown and Toongabbie in hot pursuit.

— By Keith Gilmour —

Sutherland go to Queanbeyan this week for the match against a Monaro who promise to do wonders but have lacked the finish that counts.

If Frank Maccarone can instil into his team the will to go in for the kill rather than lay off passes at the critical moment, then the Shire will be in for a torrid time.

Melita and Arncliffe will face each other in what should be an attractive game at Garside Park on Sunday.

Raul Blanco was quite happy with a point against Croatia before a 4000-plus crowd last Sunday, after playing in the Ampol Cup final the previous Wednesday night.

Arncliffe secretary Dave Doran feels that we have underestimated the potential of his team.

Fair enough, but if they are going to put a squeeze on the leaders this year the potential must show up in this match.

Fortunately for Arncliffe they will have skipper Derek Sidey back.

He stood down last week due to a slight groin strain, leaving hard-working Frank Hall as captain for the day.

It would not surprise if the Eagles tried to nullify Andy Tracey's brilliant running in a bid to climb towards leadership.

Kaz Kulak warns to watch out for Tim Hooper, whom he regards as potentially one of the stars of the season.

Out at Cromer Park on Saturday keen antagonists Yugal and Manly met.

Yugal coach Tony Schwarz was almost distraught after last

Saturday's 2-0 loss to Arncliffe, especially because of the sitters that were missed.

Maybe this will be Branko Karanfilovski's week, because if Yugal are to spark with Tom Mihajlovic still away then they need him finishing as well as initiating movements.

Granville's bustling style is their asset, as well as being a liability due to lack of polish.

If they use what they have then it will be hard for Ku-ring-gai to reply in the other Saturday match, which will be at Garside Park.

Auburn v Toongabbie looks an attractive fixture at Mona Park.

Steve Leak could prove a handful for Gabbie, who have the potential to win and win well if they knuckle down.

Avala and Croatia meet at the former's temporary home, the Ireland Bridge Reserve near Warwick Farm.

Croatia were goal-shy last week, and Barton and Gray will have to be very active if the same is to apply this week.

Avala will miss their midfielder Zoran Djuricic, who was sent off last week.

Marrickville lost close to the whistle last week, but at home at Arlington they will be a hard nut for big improvers Bankstown.

Norm Penman and Alan Sheldrick of Olympic face up to the current team of their former club in what should be a titanic struggle for points.

Greg Lynch and Chris Rootsey in defence and Dennis Daley in attack are the Towns' men of the moment.

Sent off: Mullen, Souness. Cautions: Mullen, Souness, Berry, Degney. Referee: A. Boskovic. Crowd: 2844.

City provided their own executioners. It came as no surprise when Kevin Mullen was sent off, although Ian Souness was somewhat unfortunate to transgress by bringing Peter Sharne a cropper when the latter was breaking through for what could have been a second goal and curtains for City. The foul was a blatant professional job and the remedy automatic due to an earlier caution.

Even after the Souness dismissal Marconi were a bit cumbersome, and City replacement Ernie Campbell almost cancelled out a brilliant early goal by Marconi's Eddie Krncevic. When Krncevic's pass saw Mark Jankovics score the second, things really moved as Marconi fought for a bonus point.

Jankovics finished off Sharne's pass, and Krncevic scored again a minute before the whistle to get the fourth, and the first three-point win in the PSL.

It should be recorded that the three-point win looked a winner for Gutendorf. There was no hanging back when Marconi went two ahead. All the excitement came as Marconi went for the point, and a 4-0 win had as much interest as a 3-2 cliffhanger.

The game produced a very capable showing from City left-back Ian Bruce, but there was a distinct lack of goalscoring potential in the front line. Not so with Marconi, who showed that they still possess that precious ability to set a game alight. — K. Gilmour

HEIDELBERG 2 (1)

STH. MELB. 2 (0)

Goals: 1-0 Buljevic (37m), 1-1 Drakeford (62m), 2-1 Taylor (70m), 2-2 Cummings (80m).

HEIDELBERG: Banovic 4, McMillan 4, Tansey 4, O'Reilly 3, Provan 3, Rooney 4, Taylor 3, J. Campbell 3, A. Boziskas 3 (Selemidis 64m), Cole 4, Buljevic 4. Coach: J. Margaritis.

SOUTH MELBOURNE: Reilly 4, Kalafatis 3, Turner 3, Munro 4, Baxter 4 (Kyriakoulis 56m), Lutton 4, Wright 3 (Davidson 45m), Drakeford 4, Cummings 3, Evans 4, G. Campbell 3. Coach: McLaren.

Referee: T. Beazleigh. Cautions: G. Campbell, McMillan, Munro, Lutton, Evans. Crowd: 12,300.

Heidelberg looked good in the early stages with South Melbourne rarely marshalling their forces past midfield. Referee Beazleigh was busy with yellow cards for George Campbell and Munro of South Melbourne with McMillan of Heidelberg in the 10th minute.

This cooled things down somewhat with a quiet passage of play as a result, but then Lutton was booked in the 32nd minute. A smart passage of play between Cole and Buljevic on the right wing was followed by Cole laying on a chance which only Buljevic could take at the 37th minute. An indirect "free" on the penalty line taken by Munro flat-tended George Campbell just on halftime.

The second half saw South moving better, but they suffered the loss of Stuart Baxter through a head clash with Provan. It was found later that Baxter would be out for three weeks with a fractured cheek bone.

The replacement with Kyriakoulis seemed to ginger up the South attack with Evans working well to lay on a great goal in the 62nd minute for tiny Drakeford. The change of Selemidis for Boziskas gave Heidelberg more fluency and six minutes later Heidelberg took the lead again when Buljevic gave Taylor the opportunity for one of his rare goals. Only ten minutes to go saw one of these farcial goalmouth flurries in the Heidelberg area, and Cummings slyly backheeled for the equaliser. J. Stephen

SYD OLYMPIC 2 (1)

WEST ADEL 0

Goals: 1-0 Eaton (36m), 2-0 McIntosh (52m).

OLYMPIC: Meier 3, Ainslie 5, Wilson 4, Bell 4, Cotton 3, Cross 3, Laing 5, Raskopoulos 5, Jamieson 4, McIntosh 5, Eaton 4. Coach: J. Marston.

WESTAD: Crook 3, Bozanic 3, Reynolds 4, McGachey 4, McCulloch (Honeyman 3, 29m), Jones 3, Boyle 4, Pillars 3, Norris 2, Zervas 2, McGregor 2 (Tymczyszyn 55m). Coach: T. Ford. Referee: P. Rampley. Crowd: 2731.

Once the match got under way after a 20-minute search for a change strip for Westad, we were treated to some of the best football produced by a Sydney PSL team this year. Olympic were original, aggressive, fast, and all the other superlatives one can think of. Alan Ainslie was irresistible, placing the ball where he wanted with tempting passes, and probing forward to have several tremendous shots with the famous leg. In fact, he was terribly unlucky not to have been credited with a goal when a 35-metre thunderbolt flashed past Crook only to be ruled out through offside.

Derek Laing was also dazzling, creating hell for his markers as he dummied, twisted and turned past them to send numerous crosses to Clive Eaton. When Olympic went forward there was always a feeling that something would happen. They created width, while the front runners made space for each other and for the midfielders.

Raskopoulos was like a young Bonhof, surging through midfield to turn defence into attack. Westad's Peter Boyle was the main contestant against the combined might of the Sydneysiders and not surprisingly he came off second best.

He did a tremendous amount of work, but his chances were wasted by a sloppy forward line which showed little cohesion. McGachey also was a pillar for Westad at the back, and kept up his work and distribution throughout.

Both Olympic goals were from headers, with Eaton shaving the grass to dive and flick home Ainslie's cross, while McIntosh powered home Cotton's freekick. Olympic had another goal disallowed apart from Ainslie's effort, when Raskopoulos' 20-metre shot was also cancelled through offside. — S. Dettre

DULL CUP FINAL

PRAHRAN SLAVIA v GREEN GULLY
AJAX 1-1 (after extra time).

Ajax won 5-4 on penalties. The Victorian Ampol Cup Final could not have been a worse exhibition of soccer for the poor crowd of 1000 in very pleasing conditions last Saturday at Olympic Park.

Slavia, who had played brilliantly the previous week, could not put their game together.

It was difficult to see any plan of campaign from either side, in this 25th year of competition.

Andy Segi, former Melbourne star, was always trying but shooting wildly for Ajax.

Jim Train with a good shot saw Denys save for Gully, but there was little to enthuse about. All the excitement came during extra time when Billy Vojtek, former Socceroo, scored in the 102nd minute for Ajax.

With only one minute to go Jim Paton, State player, got the equaliser for Slavia. The resultant penalty kicks saw the Gully win the Cup by 5 to 4.

TOP SCORER AWARDS

The Courage Brewing Company in Melbourne has decided to reward goal scoring in four grades of soccer in Victoria this season. The Top Scorer Crest and Ace Awards will be worth $750 in the Philips League. The State League player will receive $500, with Metropolitan players' prizemoney being $300. The Provisional League top target man will receive $200. This decision was announced last Thursday at a meeting in Melbourne.

CHAIRMAN RETIRES

Vic Manson is retiring as chairman of the Victorian Junior Soccer Federation after many years of working for junior soccer.

Vic and his wife have decided to retire to the pleasant surroundings of Hervey Bay in Queensland.

He says he wants to work for junior soccer up that way. I can envisage soccer booming in Hervey Bay and wish Vic Manson a happy semi-retirement.

Vic will visit Britain for the FA Cup Final before settling down in the Sunshine State. J. Stephen ● Socceroo goalie Todd Clarke now has a major fight on his hands for the Sydney City position as young Tony Pezzano keeps impressing coach Gerry Chaldi.

● Sydney City's big stopper Eddie Thomson should be OK for Sunday's match at Barton Stadium. Only the depleted state of the team — two suspensions — may save a Terry Smith from being dropped; his club critics claim that his refusal to challenge for the ball makes their attack so tame.

● Once friends and colleagues with the Socceroos, Les Scheinflug and Rale Rasic are now on the coolest of cool terms and the clash of their teams at Marconi on Sunday will have this added tension.

● New Marconi recruits Allan Ryder, a goalie, and Martin Brown, a midfielder, were due to arrive this week from Stoke City. Both are Stoke-born players who, however, didn't make one appearance with the first team last season.

● Les Scheinflug denies that Robert Vieri's absence is through "diplomatic injury". He says he has had a thigh muscle injury. "You can check with his doctor, I'll give you his number."

● Influenza has been decimating the Marconi ranks: first Mariani, then Russell and finally Prskalo suffered from a bout. Last Sunday Prskalo played with a fever not to let his team down.

● Youngsters Mariani, the new makeshift stopper, and Brogan are likely to be in the Marconi defence this weekend.

JUNIORS

Southern and Eastern Association, long the minnows of Sydney junior soccer, are charging ahead.

Late beginners with modern methods against the long-established local Rugby League and Rugby Union, they already have 135 teams with more to come.

This is a 19 per cent rise on the 1978 total of 105 teams. Thirty five of them are seniors and the balance youngsters.

Quality is on the improve. They took the prestigious Mini Ampol Cup final at the Sports Ground with an 18-metre drive that shut out Gladesville-Hornsby 1-0.

Under joint coaches Manuel Sciberras and Paul Rosenberg the team produced the goods at the right time. Alan Gilbert was their topscorer through the series.

Last year S&E won the under-16 Champions of Champion series, were runners up in under-12, and sent two players to New Zealand in the NSW team.

At the present rate of progress they will exceed the 200 team minimum that applies before new Associations are officially recognised in Sydney. K.G.

• Adelaide City's Rale Rasic on Johnny Nyskohus: "Magic. He breaks so fast from the second line, and he is off like a bullet before the opposition can get near him. Johnny Perin is enjoying it in the back four, but I have Perin, Muniz, Northcote and Nyskohus to handle the midfield, and now Gary Marocchi is breaking his neck to get back into the team."

• On goalkeeper Yakka Banovic, Heidelberg coach John Margaritis: "He is a really top goalkeeper. But he has to go through the settling in stage and bring his confidence up to PSL requirements."

• Les Scheinflug, Marconi: "What we could do if we also had a midfield general."

• Clive Eaton: "I had to dive so low for that header (first goal) that my nose was grazing the grassroots."

• Olympic's Joe Marston: "We're starting to play like a team and the spirit is sky high. If I am asked to single out some players, I must mention Ainslie, McIntosh and Laing."

• Tom Forde of West Adelaide: "In the second half we also had chances, at least four or five, but missed the lot."

• Peter Boyle of West Adelaide: "Our attack was in a mess throughout the game; with that, we had to lose."

• Paul Cotton of Olympic: "Believe it or not, we played just as well in Melbourne a week earlier, yet lost. That's football."

• Referee Peter Rampley: "At the disputed offside goal I was in line with Ainslie's shot and an Olympic striker was definitely offside. It's a different matter whether that fantastic shot would have been saved by the goalie anyway. I have to interpret the rules the way I see them."

• Jim Adams (APIA) was not too downhearted by the showing put on by his "Young Lions". This experienced coach knows where the deficiencies lie and is no doubt rectifying them behind the scenes. Passed a favorable comment on the showing of young John Vernon who played very well and also, like Saftich, praised the skills of an opponent, in this case Echeverria.

• Young Olympic starlet Greg Allan's retirement is temporary: being a surveyor, he must spend a lot of time in the country and cannot train regularly with the team.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

• Comic opera at Barton Stadium last Sunday: the Olympic v West Adelaide match started 19 minutes late because both teams wanted to play in their blue strip and a replacement set had to be found for the visitors. Then, at halftime, the groundsman locked the visitors' dressing room and went for a walkabout.

• J. Smith of Warilla, near Wollongong, won a free holiday for two to Britain and tickets to the FA Cup final as part of the Sydney City nickname contest.

• Even if with a week's delay but the skydiver did arrive last Sunday at Wentworth Park as a belated part of the promotions for the previous week.

• Heidelberg's John Margaritis: "It's too early to make predictions about this competition, although we do have a good side. One thing is certain: Jimmy Rooney is the best midfielder in Australia, and only a dose of flu has kept him back so far."

• Joe Marston of Olympic: "We are playing well enough. If we could only get 50 per cent of the chances we are creating we could be scoring about four a game. Well, that's a bit high. I suppose I'd settle for 1-0 in any game!"

• Tom Forde (West Adelaide): "David Pillans is available for away games. He is now in partnership in a business."

• St. George manager Les Bordacs: "Mike Fraser's little finger had to be pinned. I can see him out for two months and then having to get match fit. Doug Utjesenovic will be back on Sunday but Ray Cotton is out with a bruised foot. Thank heaven Rudi Gnani is back, fit and in form."

• "Look at some of our opponents like APIA and Marconi. They have access to more talent than we can dream of. Yet our boys are putting it together so well." From Alan Vest, coach of early leaders Newcastle.

• Vest again: "Brett Cowburn has the makings of a tremendously skilled player. He is not quite as fast as Malcolm McClelland, who is more direct. It is difficult to place Peter Tredinnick as well as the other two at the one time."

• Breezy Vic Fernandez of Canberra City: "John Davies knocked his ankle in training, which aggravated an earlier injury. Things are not so bad because Paul Fielding is quite fit and becoming used to Australian conditions."

• "We're in a slump but we'll get out of it," says Sydney City manager Harry Lakmaker. "The Press didn't help by making out that we are an unbeatable team, which we ourselves never claimed yet some of the boys were ready to believe."

• St. George star Doug Utjesenovic is certain to return to the team on Sunday at sweeper to join Della Picca, Grosse and Terry with captain Harris likely to be bypassed.

• Joe Gelei of St. George: "I took George Harris off at halftime because we needed extra strength up front and because he seemed out of touch anyway."

• Sydney City manager Harry Lakmaker: "I don't think it had happened for some 20 years that after three rounds we would be in the very last place."

• Les Scheinflug of Marconi: "We could have scored eight goals but Jankovics and Sharne both missed two sitters apiece. Byrne and Degney are rapidly coming back to form and that will make a big difference."

Marconi's newly signed young striker Eddie Krncevic (right) sweeping past Sydney City defender Mark Trener. Krncevic helped himself to two goals in the rout.

'MODEST' FEE?

Young Soccerroo Graham Jennings is the subject of a transfer squabble.

His contract with Adamstown allowed him to go at a modest price — but that was the catch.

Adamstown club thought $4000 was modest enough but the Northern NSW Federation reduced it to $500.

Newcastle United expected to settle with Adamstown but the player was in contact with Sydney Olympic and got involved terms.

Meanwhile the Rosebuds appealed to get the $500 increased and the Newcastle authorities would issue no clearance.

The appeal was due to be heard on Tuesday night.

Jennings is not ready for full PSL duty, but he represents good value if he keeps going ahead at the present rate.

● Next week: Full draws of Divisions 3-6.

FINAL TO CITY

— By STEPHEN DETTRE —

Sydney City powered their way to victory in the Ampol Cup final, fighting back to a 3-1 win after trailing early on.

City's win left one wondering how they will do this year in the PSL, for they seemed to have lost a lot of their shine from 1978.

The power and team-work is still there, but apart from the wizardry of Joe Watson, the artistry was at a low ebb.

Melita started off in their typical whirlwind fashion, bursting forward when they had the chance, and constantly tackling in defence to disrupt City's moves.

After only 10 minutes it was apparent that Watson would be more than a match for Mikas, while Billy Griffith looked extremely sharp on the ball for the Eagles.

After 11 minutes a lightning counter-punch from Melita saw Parker race in on goal, only for O'Connor to foul him on the edge of the box.

Ray Farrugia sent the vast Melita support into raptures when he put a perfect 20-metre freekick over the City wall and beyond Pezzano to score, but the joy was short lived.

Three minutes later MacDonald made a bad blunder by allowing the ball to bounce in the penalty area, and Stevenson whipped the ball home past a stranded Uwe Bracklow.

Both sides had several great chances to go ahead, with Watson supplying Kershaw with a stream of crosses which he wasted, and Melita breaking well to put pressure on Pezzano.

Controversy shrouded a 38th minute incident when Griffith burst into the box, and was tripped, but referee Boskovic allowed play to go on, and when the ball ran to Parker who scored, he was given offside.

After the break Terry Smith came on for the disappointing Kershaw, and eight minutes later City were in the lead.

Smith flicked on Silva's corner and Steve O'Connor, racing through on the far post, sent the ball in with a low diving header.

Melita took quite a while to recover from this set-back, and failed to take advantage of City's slackening.

McAusland almost scored when he burst through past three tackles before being denied by a brilliant save from Pezzano, while Don Allan and Ray Farrugia also had chances.

City's power was the telling factor though, and in the 78th minute a simple move saw Murray Barnes accept Smith's double-pass to smash the ball past Bracklow.

Sydney City: Pezzano, Mullen, Thomson, O'Connor, Bruce, Stevenson, Watson, Barnes, Kershaw (45m Smith), Souness, Silva (73m Campbell).

Melita: Bracklow, McPherson, Mikas, Yamine, MacDonald, McAusland, Parker, J. Farrugia (53m Darville), Allan, R. Farrugia, Griffith (77m Jones).

Referee: A. Boskovic. Crowd: 3000 (est.). Cautions: O'Connor, Barnes.

Goals: 0-1 R. Farrugia (11m), 1-1 Stevenson (14m), 2-1 O'Connor (53m), 3-1 Barnes (78m).

MINI-SAINTS

St. George coach Joe Gelei used the third place match as a testing ground for his reserve squad players, and though he was criticised in some quarters for doing so, the match should have shown him some valuable things.

Perhaps the most obvious was that there is no "wonder mid-fielder" whom Gelei can call upon to help rescue his first team.

Saints midfield was slow and laborious, and was easily out-matched by a APIA team which gradually grew in confidence as the match wore on.

APIA: Woodhouse, Skellern (Rowden 58m), Wilson, Richards, Turnbull, Carruthers, Stone

(Drews 45m), O'Donnell, Reed, Scott, Vernon.

ST GEORGE: Coe, Rendell, Scharfegger, Holmik, Dale, Katholos, Groome, Barron, Duarte (Martinez 45m, Acosta 59m), Kay, Hensman.

Referee: H. Witschge. Cautions: Holmik, Groome, Reed.

Goals: 1-0 Reed (34m), 2-0 Carruthers (pen, 52m), 3-0 Dale (own goal) (79m).

KEEGAN WANTS DANE AS PARTNER

Kevin Keegan and Alan Simonsen in the same team? It's becoming more than a possibility.

The little Dane's contract with Monchengladbach expires in another two months and he will definitely move.

Hamburg's English star Keegan has told manager Gunter Netzer that he would be delighted to play with Simonsen and make Hamburg Europe's new glamour team.

Simonsen himself declared his interest, too: "It would be an honour and pleasure to play with Keegan."

Of course, many other clubs are also interested: Barcelona, Real Madrid, Arsenal, Manchester City, Everton, one from Saudi Arabia and at least three from the USA.

"I may prefer Hamburg" says Simonsen, "though I could probably earn more money with the Arabs or the Spaniards."

"But, I'd like to finish my career playing for the sheer pleasure of it."

It would be more than just pleasure: Hamburg would pay Simonsen about $200,000 a year...

Alan Simonsen "wanted" by Kevin Keegan for Hamburg.

BRAZIL TRIES OUT NEW RULES

An experimental match incorporating innovations in soccer rules was recently promoted by TV Bandeirantes in Sao Paulo. The alterations to the rules were these:

- (1) Offside only in the penalty-areas;
- (2) a penalty kick awarded after five fouls committed.
- (3) playing time 30 minutes each way, the clock being stopped when the ball was not in play;
- (4) kick-ins instead of throw-ins;
- (5) two referees each taking one half of the pitch.

The two sides selected included many past and present famous players — for example, the Whites had: Goalkeeper Felix, Djalma Santos, Carlos Alberto, Dudu, Eneas and Pedro Rocha. The Red team had: Marinho Perez, Clodoaldo, Valdemir, Juari, Cesar, Romeu, Moises and Ailton Lira.

The match result was a 5-5 draw, but it was evident that the players were totally unaccustomed to the new rules. Only two penalties, for the five-foul rule were awarded, one to each side.

Strangely enough neither side tried playing the long ball up to their forwards. An interesting point was one of the goals scored by the Reds, Ailton Lira dribbled past five opponents before scoring — this apparent easy goal was caused by the fact that the Whites had a total of four fouls against them already, consequently no opponent dared risk a tackle or even a professional foul to stop him scoring, as this would, automatically, have given away a penalty kick under the five-foul rule.

The crowd also participated, by yelling out not to foul, when "their" team was on four fouls. The referees, however, were of the opinion that there was less violent play and the football was much less defensive.

However, because of the lack of adaptation by the players, one thing was evident: Any official changes in the rules will not be easily or rapidly effected.

GREASE SCANDAL SHOCKS GREECE

Closely following the shock waves of a major bribe scandal in the Greek second division, a new sensation broke in Athens recently.

In the last but one round Olympiakos defeated Jannina 1-0 and, as it turns out, a bribe of $20,000 had been offered to Jannina's goalkeeper, Argentine-born Lissa.

However, the bribe attempt was revealed before the match — through Lissa himself — and to avoid any hints of suspicion, the goalie was dropped from the team.

Olympiakos won 1-0 with a goal by Persias in the 13th minute.

Investigations so far have revealed that the bribe was offered by a mysterious man called Georg, allegedly an ardent supporter of Olympiakos.

The Greek FA now wants to find the man and see if he acted alone or on behalf of his club.

Meanwhile, Arisz are racing towards the championship title, having beaten 2-1 AEK in Salonika.

Some of the aged stars of AEK — including Domazos and Papaioannou — were unable to withstand the dynamic Arisz.

AEK's manager Ferec Puskas has been sent on a three-month "sick leave" — but his return to Athens is most unlikely.

It was a black day for English clubs in last week's Euro-Cups: Only Nottingham Forest reached the semifinals while Ipswich and West Bromwich bled away.

As usual, the powerful West German clubs dominate the scene once again: They have four qualifiers so far in the last 12 — with FC Koln a possible fifth if they eliminate Glasgow Rangers in their postponed match.

Surprisingly, not one Dutch club has reached the semifinals while the East Bloc countries have only two survivors, one from Czechoslovakia and one from Yugoslavia.

The field for the glamour event, the Champions'

Hertha Berlin's German international Erich Beer.

• The race is on to sign Dutch star Johan Neeskens. Even some English clubs are interested, though wondering how they could afford to pay him what he earns in Spain: $360,000 a year. One thing in his favor: Neeskens will be allowed to leave Barcelona without a transfer fee which, normally, would be about $800,000.

• Botafogo of Rio is having some headaches. Controversial winger Paulo Cesar has transferred to Gremio of Porto Alegre and midfielder Gil is in dispute with the club.

• Wisla Krakow, recent visitors to Australia, are struggling in the Polish championship, tied to the 11th place after 17 rounds. Odra Opole are at the top ahead of Ruch Chorzow, Legia Warsaw and Widzew Lodz.

• Because of indiscipline, Leeds has suspended Hankin for 15 days without pay. Hankin has appealed to the Players' Union.

• A German newspaper claims that FC Koln's Schuster is a "cross between Overath, Beckenbauer and Schnellinger." High praise — perhaps too high...

• Don't be surprised if Birmingham's Argentinian star Tarantini leaves the club at the end of the season. Buenos Aires — based River Plate are interested.

• Wolverhampton are hopeful of signing French ace Michael Platini for 1979-1980.

• Former Liverpool ace Tommy Smith, now playing for Swansea, has been suspended for the third time this season.

• Hamburg coach Branko Zebec has declined an offer to coach his native Yugoslavia. Zebec has a contract until 1981 and has no intention of leaving before that.

• The president of the West German FA (DFB), Neuberger, has demanded that FIFA ban Malta's international ground at La Valetta because of its "cement" surface.

• Pele has invested some of his fortune in a safari hotel in Kenya.

• Two Danish internationals, Oly Flindt and Lars Jensen, have been signed by the American San Jose Earthquakes.

• Pirri is about to play his 500th official match with Real Madrid. Of these, 70 were in the various Euro-Cups.

• Atletico Madrid will not renew the contract of their Hungarian coach Ferenc Szusza. His successor will be Luis Aragones.

• Because of changing social customs and the many rival weekend attractions, Sweden's first division matches in future will be played on Monday evening.

• Monchengladbach's midfielder Horst Wohlers has received an eight-week suspension for violent conduct.

• Following the lifting of their ban, Nyilasi and Torocsik — both in superb form — are certain to be recalled into the Hungarian national side by manager Ferenc Kovacs. In a recent match Nyilasi scored four of Ferencvaros' five goals against Tatabanya.

• Bayern Munchen have offered the managerial post to Max Merkel — and promptly the players announced that they would not work under him. The brilliant Merkel has been with various Austrian, German and Spanish clubs during his long career and while producing results, he invariably had severe clashes with officials, referees and even supporters.

• Once the most celebrated manager in Europe, former Inter Milan (and earlier Barcelona) boss Helenio Herrera is now technical adviser to Italian second division club Rimini, a lovely Adriatic resort.

• Because of modernisation works, Milan's San Siro stadium's capacity has been temporarily reduced to 50,000. As the stadium has some 16,000 season ticket holders, only 34,000 tickets go on sale each weekend — many on the blackmarket, fetching prices twice their face value.

• One of Malta's best ever international results: They lost only 1-2 to Turkey in Izmir for the European Championship.

• Eintracht Frankfurt will make drastic changes in the contract of their players: The basic salaries will be reduced, but the players will benefit from gate takings, according to a pre-determined scale.

• Dr. Helmut Kaser, secretary general of FIFA and, for long a rugged bachelor, recently got married for the first time — at 66.

• Ulrik Le Fevre, former Danish international, has announced his retirement, at 33. During his career he played for three champion sides: Monchengladbach, Bruges and his own country's Vejle.

• The sports medical specialist of a leading Hungarian club, Ujpest, claims that in changing weather conditions players are apt to show unusual fatigue and nervous tension. The best remedy: A lot of fruit and vegetables containing vitamins.

• As Roma is slipping closer to the relegation zone in Italy; their 1-2 defeat to local rivals Lazio made matters critical for them.

• Quite an unusual score nowadays — In East Germany Dynamo Dresden beat Zwickau 10-1.
